WSFTE 2020 | WORLD SOCIAL FORUM OF TRANSFORMATIVE ECONOMIES

Who is who at the Barcelona meeting?

COMMONS

Commons Network with Sophie Bloemen

Commons Network	Commons Network is a civil society organisation that works with activists, thinkers, pioneers and policy makers to tell stories, build networks and propose policies to support commoners and defend the commons throughout Europe. Members: 10 Scope: Europe HQ: Berlin, Brussels, Amsterdam and Valencia
Founder and director of the Network of Commons, Bloemen is a specialist in socio-ecological transitions. For more than ten years, she has been dedicated to medical policies and is a consultant in matters such as health, commerce and R & D. In addition, she helped to create entities or alliances such as the European Alliance for Responsible R & D and Fairer Drugs or the European Common Assembly. Based in: Netherlands, Amsterdam Language(s): English, Spanish, Dutch, German

REMIX The Commons with Frédéric Sultan

REMIX THE COMMONS.ORG	Remix the Commons is an open intercultural space for sharing and co-creating multimedia documents about the commons. It supports production, animation and distribution projects on the commons. Members: 16 formal and 660 informal Scope: Europe / International

	HQ: France, Canada, Morocco, Senegal
Sultan has been an education activist since 2010. He collaborated with researchers and educational professionals in order to create and implement tools and methodologies for education in the commons. As well, he has been participating in the constitution of the Assembly of Commons of Europe since 2015. Based in: France, Paris Language(s): French

GPR2C (Global Platform for the Right to the City) with Eduard Cabré

Global Platform for the Right to the City Plataforma Global por el Derecho a la Ciudad Plataforma Global pelo Direito à Cidade	The Global Platform is an initiative of a group of organizations with the purpose of building an international movement for the Right To The City. It aims to contribute to the adoption of commitments, policies, projects and actions aimed at developing fair cities, democratic, sustainable and inclusive by United Nations bodies and the national and local governments. Members: 100 + organizations Scope: International HQ: Mexico
Eduard Cabré is a political scientist and urban planner who works as a consultant for different governments and local non-profit associations, especially in social housing issues. In fact, the epicenter of its action is part of the trend regimes, as well as the role of non-profit social housing providers. Based in: Spain, Barcelona Language(s): Catalan, Spanish, English and French

Wikimedia España with Elena Sanz

WIKIMEDIA ESPAÑA	On the 7th February 2011, Wikimedia Foundation approved the creation of Wikimedia Spain. This is a non-profit Spanish association which aims to promote directly or indirectly all initiatives of free contents and